📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Lord Shiva was in Mandarachal and Kashi was ruled by a very pious and religious King named Divodas. In his Kingdom every one was very happy and there was all round prosperity. He had reached an understanding with Lord Brahma that as long as he was ruling, Devas and other celestial beings should stay away from Kashi and should not create any disturbance in Kashi.

Lord Brahma more or less agreed to it but on one condition that King Divodas should prove himself an excellent and able administrator and all people living in Kashi or visiting Kashi should be treated well in their religious pursuits. The King agreed to it and accordingly gave excellent governance.

Lord Shiva was very upset at being away from Kashi for a long time and he wanted to make King Divodas commit some mistake. Accordingly, he sent sixty four Yoginis to create some disturbance, but they were enthralled by the beauty and serene surroundings of Kashi which appeared to be a part of heaven. They ultimately settled down there.

When the Yoginis failed to return, Lord Shiva sent Lord Surya with instructions to create some disturbance in Kashi so as to defeat King Divodas in his resolve. Lord Surya came to Kashi and disguised himself as an astrologer, a learned scholar, a religious propagator, a businessman, a brahmin etc. But he could not find any fault with any person in Kashi or with the governance of King Divodas. Lord Surya was also very much attracted towards Kashi and the beauty of the city. Lord Surya thought, if he went back to Mandarachal without fulfilling the wishes of Lord Shiva, the latter would get angry.

Kashi Khand, Chapter 09, Shlok 69

न दरिद्रा न दु:खार्ता न व्याधिपरिपीडिता:

संक्रमेष्वर्कभक्ता ये न विरूपा न दुर्भगा:

Devotees who worship Sun God on Sankranti days will not face the hardships of sorrow, poverty, illness, ugliness and misfortune. (There are 12 Sankranti days every year).

————————————————————————————————

Lord Surya finally decided to stay in Kashi. He said to himself, disobeying the instructions of Lord Shiva is a sin, but by staying in Kashi and undertaking religious activities, such sins will easily get cleansed.

————————————————————————————————————-

Kashi Khand, Chapter 09, Shlok 75

रविवारे संक्रमश्चेदुपरागोऽथवा भवेत्

तदा यदर्चितं पुण्यं तदिहाक्षयमाप्यते

If there is Sankranti or solar eclipse on Sunday, then if a devotee engages in good deeds like money donation, chanting of religious verses, havan, bathing in holy rivers (like Ganga) etc., the punya benefits become inexhaustible here (they are ever lasting).

————————————————————————————————

Accordingly Surya settled down in Kashi for the time being. Lord Surya is worshipped in his twelve forms and Kashi Khand has narrated the importance of the twelve Adityas as under :

DWADASHA ADITYA #1

ARUN ADITYA

Charioteer of Surya • Dispeller of Poverty & Chronic Ailments

🌐 Original Live URL:	https://varanasitemples.in/category/aditya-temples/arun-aditya/
📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/arun-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Lord Skanda was describing the predicament of Vinata whereby she had become slave once upon a time. Sage Agasthya wanted to know what made her become a slave, even though she was very pious in her daily activities.

Lord Skanda described thus: Sage Kashyap had many wives of which two were Kadru and Vinata. While Kadru gave birth to hundred snakes, Vinata gave birth to three children, Owl, Garuda and Arun. Initially when Owl was born, he became the King of all birds, but due to his incompetency, the birds chose to disregard him. Therefore, to this day the birds do not have a king of their own.

While Owl was her first offspring, the other two were still in the egg. Vinata wished her remaining eggs to hatch but to her utter dismay, the eggs did not hatch. She could not bear the agony of her first child being ridiculed. So, in her impetuousness to beget the baby, she decided to break open one of the eggs prematurely, hoping to get a son. As soon as she broke open the egg, she saw a child within, fully developed from thigh upwards, but the lower portion representing the legs was still under making.

Thus, the premature new born child who was referred to as Arun (Dawn) in Kashi Khand, Chapter 51, was very furious at his mother's impatience which resulted in his deformity. Arun cursed his mother that she would become a slave to the children of Kadru. Vinata pleaded innocence whereupon Arun took pity on her. He told her not to be impatient with the third egg. The child born out of this egg, will get her out of the slavery.

Having said so, Arun in due course of time wanted to rid himself of the deformity. He came to Kashi and started penitently praying to Lord Surya, who became happy with Arun. He appeared in person and blessed Arun stating that the latter will always be with him (Lord Surya) as his charioteer. Lord Surya said a person who worships me in the form of Arun Aditya will not know what is sadness and poverty will always remain at a distance.

(ARUN ADITYA)

According to Kashi Khand, a person who worships Arun Aditya will never fall ill and there will be no obstacles in the devotee's smooth life. The devotee will not know what is misery.

————————————————————————————————-

Kashi Khand, Chapter 51, Shlok 23

व्याधिभिर्नाऽभिभूयन्ते नोपसर्गैश्च कैश्चन

शोकाग्निना न दह्यन्ते ह्यरुणादित्यसेवनात

By worshipping Arunaditya, the devotee will not face diseases of any kind, nor will face any hindrance and can never be disturbed by sorrow.

DWADASHA ADITYA #2

DRAUPAD ADITYA

Bestower of the Akshaya Patra • Sovereign Sustainer of Pilgrims

🌐 Original Live URL:	https://varanasitemples.in/category/aditya-temples/draupad-aditya/
📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/draupad-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

When Pandavas went in exile, Draupadi was extremely sad to look at the plight of her husbands. (It is well known that Draupadi was married to the five pandavas and she also accompanied them to the forests and other places in exile).

She came to Kashi and started intensely praying to Lord Surya. Lord Surya was deeply moved by her sincerity and appeared before her. He gave her one vessel and told her that the vessel would be a "never emptying vessel" inasmuch as she could go on feeding any number of guests and the vessel would never get empty. However, she should be the last one to eat. (Even now old timers say that Guests should be fed first and household ladies should be the last to eat).

Lord Surya also told Draupadi about a divine wish that Lord Shiva had given to him. According to it, if a devotee who comes to pray to Vishveshwar in Kashi, prays to Lord Surya first, Lord Surya will have the power to remove all the sorrows which are clinging to the devotee. Lord Surya also states here that a person who sincerely prays to him at this place will never remain hungry. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 49).

Kashi Khand, Chapter 49, Shlok 17

प्राग्रवे त्वां समाराध्य यो मां द्रक्ष्यति मानव:

तस्य त्वं दु:खतिमिरमपानुद निजै: करै:

(Vishweshwara says to the Sun God), the person who first worships you (in the form of Draupad Aditya) and then worships me, you should remove the darkness of his sorrow with your rays.

————————————————————————————————

(DRAUPAD ADITYA)

The Aditya located here came to be called as Draupad Aditya.

LOCATION OF DRAUPAD ADITYA

Draupad Aditya was earlier located at Ck. 35/21, Akshay Vat, near Vishweshar Temple. Now it comes inside Kashi Vishwanath Temple corridor.

There are three approach lanes one via Dashashwamedh Road, 2nd via Bansphatak and third via Gyanvapi. It is difficult to prescribe the convenient entry point because due to heavy police patrolling, entry points keep changing. During peak rush days like Mondays and other important festivals, the police may regulate the pilgrims through Gyanvapi and the exit point may be through Bansphatak etc. Since the temple is located in deep Gully, it is advisable to visit the temple alongwith a local person or Guide.

TYPES OF POOJA

The place is open for worship practically throughout the day. People can perform self poojas at the place.

📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Kashi Khand states that Lord Surya positioned himself at a particular place in Kashi so as to worship Holy river Ganges.

(GANGA ADITYA)

It is believed that even today Lord Surya is residing at the above place reciting Stotras of Ganges and blessing his devotees. The form of Surya at the Ghat of Ganges came to be known as Ganga Aditya.

A staunch devotee, who worships Ganga Aditya will never face any mishap and will never be cheated by anyone. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 51).

📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/keshava-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Once Lord Surya was travelling in the sky and from a distance he could see Adi Keshav (Lord Vishnu) worshipping a Shiv Ling. Being very curious, Lord Surya came down to the earth and after Adi Keshav finished the prayers, put forward a question to the latter.

Lord Surya asked when the entire world regards Lord Vishnu as Antaratma, the latter should be worshipped. Lord Surya was surprised why Lord Vishnu was worshipping Lord Shiva. To quell his anxiety, Lord Vishnu replied that in Kashi Kshetra Lord Shiva is the supreme Lord and he should be worshipped by every one.

(KESHAV ADITYA)

Lord Vishnu extensively described the importance of Linga Pooja in Kashi inasmuch as a devotee who performs abhishek of a Shiv Ling and consumes the water as prasad, gets the punya of taking bath in all religious Teerths (Sacred Ponds). Lord Vishnu advised Lord Surya also to worship Lord Shiva in Ling form in Kashi. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 51).

Lord Surya piously regarded Adi Keshav as his Guru for giving this sacred knowledge and Lord Surya came to be called as Keshava Aditya at that place.

———————————————————————————————-

Kashi Khand, Chapter 51, Shlok 74

केशवादित्यमाराध्य वाराणस्यां नरोत्तमः

परमं ज्ञानमाप्नोति येन निर्वाणभाग् भवेत्

By worshiping Keshavaditya in Varanasi Puri, the ideal man attains that supreme knowledge, through which he finally attains the state of Nirvana (salvation).

————————————————————————————

According to Kashi Khand, a person who takes bath in Padodak Teerth (Koop) and worships Keshava Aditya gets rid of all sins. Special importance is attached to Magh month (Jan 21-Feb 20) on any Saptami day (7th day after Amavasya or Poornima) when it coincides with Sunday. On such days, devotees are advised to take bath in Padodak Koop and worship Keshava Aditya.

LOCATION OF KESHAVA ADITYA

Keshava Aditya is located at No. A-37/51, Adi Keshav Temple, Rajghat Fort. Devotees can travel upto this place by autorickshaw or cycle rickshaw or car.

DWADASHA ADITYA #5

KHAKHOLKH ADITYA

Celestial Illuminator of the Cosmic Skies • Healer of Severe Afflictions

🌐 Original Live URL:	https://varanasitemples.in/category/aditya-temples/khakholkh-aditya/
📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/khakholkh-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Sage Kashyap had many wives of which two were Kadru and Vinata. Kadru gave birth to children who were snakes and Vinata who was a huge bird gave birth to Garuda.

Both the sisters were playful. While Kadru was cunning, Vinata was very innocent. Once Kadru, with an ulterior motive in her mind, asked Vinata to play a guess game and the sister who loses in the game will become slave to the winner. Vinata agreed. The guess game was “what is the colour of the Uchchaisrva, one of the horses which draws Lord Surya’s Chariot”. It was well known that the colour was white and Vinata told accordingly.

But Kadru had other game plan in her mind. Upon her insistence, her children (snakes) twined themselves round the tail of the horse Uchchaisrva and started spewing venom. The colour of the horse became grayish black. Vinata lost the game and was enslaved to Kadru and her snake sons. She was very much ill treated and her son, Garuda was deeply pained at her woeful plight.

He appealed to the sons of Kadru to release his mother. They agreed to do so on one condition that he should bring them Amrit (nectar). Garuda knew this was an arduous task because Nectar was closely guarded by the Devas. However, as a dutiful son, he left for Dev Lok to accomplish the mission impossible. In the process, he had to fight with Lord Vishnu. Lord Vishnu was deeply touched by the respect which Garuda had for his mother as well as his filial obligations and told Garuda that henceforth he (Garuda) would be Lord Vishnu’s vehicle.

As regards Amrit, Lord Vishnu let Garuda take it to the snake children as ransom for release of his mother but cautioned that under no circumstances the snakes were to drink it. Garuda took the amrit and gave it to the snake children. His mother was freed by the snakes as per the agreement. Before they could consume the amrit, Garuda told them that the amrit was the purest elixir and a person who wants to consume it should get himself purified first by having a holy bath. Accordingly, the snakes placed the vessel containing the amrit on a mat made of dry grass and left for performing ablutions. In their absence, Lord Vishnu took the vessel and vanished because it did not belong to the snakes rightfully.

When the snakes returned they were anguished to see the vessel missing and with a view to getting at least a drop of amrit, they started licking the mat. The dry grass was very sharp and it slit their tongues. To this day, snakes are born with a forked tongue because they tried to consume something which they had not rightfully earned. Even now, elders advise people to take or consume only such things which have been rightfully earned.

Later, Vinata told her son Garuda that she must have committed some sin which made her a slave. She desired to go to Kashi for atonement of her sins. Garuda took her to Kashi where Garuda installed a Shiv Ling and started praying ardently. Vinata started worshipping Lord Surya in his form as Khakholkh Aditya. Lord Shiva appeared in person and blessed Garuda stating that the latter would be known by everyone in the world as the vehicle/ride (vahana) of Lord Vishnu.

(KHAKHOLKH ADITYA)

Lord Surya also appeared in person before Vinata and blessed her, whereupon Vinata was absolved of all her sins. According to Kashi Khand, Chapter 50, Khakholkh Aditya finds mention in the proximity of Pilpila Teerth.

———————————————————————————-

Kashi Khand, Chapter 50, Shlok 150

काश्यां पैशङ्गिले तीर्थे खखोल्कस्य विलोकनात्

DWADASHA ADITYA #6

LOLARK ADITYA

The Trembling Solar God • Miraculous Sunken Stepwell of Progeny

🌐 Original Live URL:	https://varanasitemples.in/category/aditya-temples/lolark-aditya/
📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/lolark-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Lolark Aditya is situated in the southern part of Kashi near Assi-Ganga Sangam, near Lolark Kund. Lolark Kund has been given great importance in Kashi Khand. In ancient times, Lolark Kund was believed to be in confluence with Ganga and Assi a rivulet but now this is in form of a Kund (Pond) only. Even now, during rainy days, Ganges water enters the Kund through some underground source.

(LOLARK ADITYA)

Great importance is attached to taking bath in this Pond in Magha Month when Shukla Shashti or Saptmi (sixth or seventh day after Amavasya) coincides with Sunday. Bathing on such a day in this kund and performing puja etc. will grant the devotees all their desires. The devotee's sins accumulated over seven previous births will be cleansed away by the above religious act. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 46).

A person who religiously prays to Lolark Aditya on every Sunday is absolved of all his sins and all his skin ailments will be healed. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 46).

LOCATION OF LOLARK ADITYA

Lolark Aditya/Lolark Kund is located near Tulsi Ghat. Persons can travel upto Marwadi Seva Sangh, Assi in a rickshaw and walk on foot upto Lolark Kund. Alternatively, they can have a boat ride upto Tulsi Ghat and climb the steps.

Please watch our YouTube Video about Lolark Aditya at following Link

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3MiOW5wXASQ&t=6s

TYPES OF POOJAS

The place is open self worship practically twenty four hours daily. Special importance is attached to prayers by self on Sundays. Presently, on a particular day every year (Lolark Chat) which falls in the Bhadrapad Month Shukla Paksha Shashti (6th day after Amavasya) devotees come in large numbers for taking bath in Lolark Kund. Further, Margashirsha Month, Shukla Paksha Shashti (6th day after Amavasya), is also an important day.

MAYUKH ADITYA

Divine Radiant Rays of Surya • Mangala Gauri Gabhasteeshwar Sanctum

📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/mayukh-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Once Lord Surya installed a Shiv Ling known as Gabhasteeshwar and a devi idol known as Mangala Gauri at Panchanada Teerth (Panchganga Ghat) and started immensely praying to Lord Shiva. (Importance of Panchganga Ghat is described under River Ganga and Teerths Categories).

The intensity of Lord Surya's prayers started reflecting in the extreme heat generated thereby. Sunrays started getting warmer and warmer. Finally it became extremely unbearable for all living beings and all physical activities practically came to a standstill.

(MAYUKH ADITYA)

Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvaty came to know about this and they appeared in person in front of Lord Surya. Lord Shiva gently touched Lord Surya, whereupon the latter's extreme heat slowly subsided and he became more or less cool. Lord Surya opened his eyes and started singing praises of Goddess Parvaty and Lord Shiva whereupon both of them became extremely happy. They granted several divine wishes to Lord Surya.

Lord Shiva told Lord Surya that when the latter was performing pooja of the former, only the sunrays were visible and the body of Lord Surya was not visible. Accordingly, Lord Surya will be called Mayukh Aditya. Mayukh means effulgence. Lord Shiva also stated that a devotee who worships Mayukh Aditya on Sundays will never fall ill. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 49).

——————————————————————————————-

Kashi Khand, Chapter 49, Shlok 94

त्वदर्चनान्नृणां कश्चिन्न व्याधिः प्रभविष्यति

भविष्यति न दारिद्र्यं रविवारे त्वदोक्षणात्

Lord Shiva says, by performing your (Mayukh Aditya's) pooja, devotees will be free from all diseases and by worshipping you on Sunday, devotees will not face poverty.

——————————————————————————————

LOCATION OF MAYUKH ADITYA

Mayukh Aditya is located at No. K-24/34, Mangala Gauri Temple, Panchganga Ghat. Devotees can travel upto Bhaironath (Kaal Bhairav) by rickshaw and walk on foot upto this temple through labyrinthine lanes. This walk usually takes about twenty to thirty minutes. Alternatively, they can take a boat ride upto Balaji Ghat/Panchganga Ghat and walk up the stairs.

The idol of Mayukh Aditya always remains moist and cool. If we physically remove the moisture and make it dry, the idol will again become moist. The reason for this is Lord Shiva touched Lord Surya to reduce his intense heat (as mentioned above). Old timers in and around the temple believe that the hidden river Dhootpapa is flowing beneath the surface, causing this moistness.

The temple also houses Gabhastheeshwar, Mangala Gauri and Mangal Vinayak. In the close vicinity are temples of Brahmacharini and Brahmeshwar.

SAAMBA ADITYA

Curative Tapasya of Krishna's Son Saamba • Surya Kund Golden Sanctuary

🌐 Original Live URL:	https://varanasitemples.in/category/aditya-temples/saamba-aditya/
📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/saamba-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

According to Kashi Khand, Once Sage Narada traveled to Dwaraka Puri and he was fondly welcomed by the mind born sons of Lord Krishna. They exhibited hospitality of the highest order and Narad was pleased. However, one son named Saamba remained aloof and did not pay any respect to Narad.

Lord Krishna welcomed Sage Narad in the former's palace with all humility. After exchanging all formalities/pleasantries, Sage Narad brought Saamba's behaviour to the notice of Lord Krishna. Sage Narad went a step ahead, stating that Saamba was a strong and handsome boy and was capable of seducing various ladies in and around the palace.

Soon Narad left the palace and Lord Krishna started keeping a close watch on Saamba but nothing untoward was observed in Saamba's behaviour. However, the surveillance went on for quite some time.

After some days, Narad again visited Dwarka Puri and precisely at that time, Lord Krishna was in his personal chambers alongwith various ladies. Narad called Saamba, who was loitering outside, and told him to inform Lord Krishna about his arrival. Saamba hesitated for a while. It was a double whammy for him. On the one hand, if he barges in and disturbs Lord Krishna, the latter may get angry. On the other hand, if he disobeys Narad, he may get angry because on the earlier occasion he had not respected Narad.

With a dilemma, he went inside Lord Krishna's private quarters, not knowing that Narad was following him. Both of them disturbed Lord Krishna who was in a compromising position. Lord Krishna suddenly got up very embarrassed. All the girls surrounding him were also equally embarrassed. Saamba silently left the place.

Narad gave a wrong interpretation of the events to Lord Krishna stating that the ladies who were with Lord Krishna were indeed seduced by the appearance of Saamba. Lord Krishna got infuriated and cursed Saamba that he will be inflicted with Leprosy. However, Saamba pleaded innocence and Lord Krishna was very much moved. He told Saamba that to get rid of this curse, he should go to Kashi and pray to Lord Surya.

Accordingly, Saamba came to Kashi, dug a Kund which was called Saamba Kund and undertook rigorous penance and pooja of Lord Surya. In due course, he was cured of this dreaded disease. Lord Aditya who is present at this place came to be called Saamba Aditya.

(SAAMBA ADITYA)

According to Kashi Khand Chapter 48, a person who takes bath in Saamba Kund religiously on Sundays at sunrise and prays to Saamba Aditya will get cured of any incurable disease, any married lady performing such prayers will always remain Sumangali (Suhagin-lady whose husband is alive) and childless couple will be blessed with child.

Saamba Kund is now known as Surya Kund / Suraj Kund.

UTTARARK ADITYA

Northern Solstice Uttarayana Aspect • Bakaria Kund Solar Guardian

🌐 Original Live URL:	https://varanasitemples.in/category/aditya-temples/uttarark-aditya/
📁 Exact Mirror Path:	`Kashi_Exact_Offline_Website/category/aditya-temples/uttarark-aditya/index.html`
📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

According to Kashi Khand, Chapter 47, long time back, one Brahmin named Priyavrat was living in Kashi alongwith his beautiful wife named Shubhavradha. Both were very religious and were blessed with a beautiful girl child, who was named as Sulakshana. The girl was born in Moola Star, 1st Charan (Padam) with Guru in fourth house. This combination is not supposed to be auspicious.

The child grew up to be a beautiful girl, well versed in all household activities. When she approached the age of marriage, her father got worried because he had to find a suitable match for her, mainly because of her birth in Moola star. Due to constant worries he fell sick and as there was no cure for worries, he died in due course. Overcome with grief, the girl's mother also died, leaving the girl all alone in the world.

The girl dutifully performed the rites of her parents and she started praying to Lord Surya in his form of Uttarark Aditya. She underwent severe penance for a considerably long time and observed that a white goat used to come daily and constantly stare at her. The goat used to take bath in the Kund in the morning, wait for the whole day and in the evening, it used to eat dry grass, drink water from the Uttarark Kund and go back. This went on for several years.

(UTTARARK ADITYA)

One day Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvaty were travelling above and they saw this girl (who had gone lean), praying before Uttarark Aditya. Both Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvaty were deeply moved by the prayers of Sulakshana and Lord Shiva offered the girl a divine wish.

Sulakshana thought for a moment and saw the Goat standing nearby. She requested Lord Shiva to grant a boon to the Goat instead of herself. Goddess Parvaty was moved by the philanthropy exhibited by Sulakshana and ordained that Sulakshana will always be with Goddess Parvaty as a companion. The goat will take rebirth as daughter of Kashi Raja in consideration of its devotion to Uttarark Kund.

According to Kashi Khand, Goddess Parvaty stated that the Kund will be remembered for the sincerity of the Goat (because the Goat was regularly taking bath in the Kund even during severe winter months) and that all devotees should take bath in the above Kund in Paushya Month (December-January) on Sundays and pray to Uttarark Aditya. By performing the above ritual, they will be divinely blessed. The Kund was named Barkari Kund (reference : Sankshipta Skanda Puran, Gita Press, Page No. 831). The Kund is now known as Bakria Kund in local parlance.

📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Long time back, one person named Vimal was residing in a hilly place. Due to some sins committed in his earlier life, he was afflicted with Leprosy. He had heard about Kashi and he left his family and belongings, came to Kashi and started worshipping Lord Surya with all fervour.

He performed all sorts of Poojas, Pushp Archana and other rituals as are prescribed for Lord Surya. His pious actions pleased Lord Surya who appeared before him and with his divine blessings, Vimal was cured of his ailment (Leprosy). Lord Surya also offered a divine wish to Vimal.

(VIMAL ADITYA)

Vimal appealed to Lord Surya that all his devotees should never be afflicted by this dreaded disease. They should not face any sort of difficulties in their life. Lord Surya granted accordingly and stated that devotees will know him as Vimal Aditya at that place. Further, Lord Surya will always remain in the idol of Vimal Aditya and will continue to bless his devotees.

According to Kashi Khand, a mere darshan of Vimal Aditya is capable enough to cure all kinds of diseases.

📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

According to Kashi Khand, once a staunch devotee called Harit, who was very old in age, stationed himself near Visalakshi Devi and intensely prayed to Lord Surya. After a long time, Lord Surya appeared before him and told the old man that he (Lord Surya) was pleased and the old man may seek any divine boon.

The old man said "for performing Tap (Tapas – rigorous ascetic practices), a devotee needs sufficient strength. There is nothing in this world as good as Tapas which gives prosperity, enlightenment and all joys. However, one needs to be young and virile enough for carrying out Tapas." Accordingly, the old man requested Lord Surya that he should be made young.

(VRIDDH ADITYA – INNER PHOTO)

Lord Surya was deeply moved by the sincerity and devotion of the old man and he granted boon accordingly. Thus the old man became young. Since Lord Surya was eulogized by an old man at that place, the Lord came to be known as Vriddh Aditya at that place. According to Kashi Khand, a person who regularly prays to Vriddh Aditya will always remain energetic like a young man.

📖 Scripture Authority:	Skanda Purana — Kashi Khand (Sanctum established by Lord Surya)

Once Yamraj installed one Shiv Ling and one idol for Lord Surya in Yam Teerth and performed rigorous Tapas. The Shiv Ling came to be known as Yameshwar and the idol of Lord Surya came to be known as Yama Aditya.

Kashi Khand states that if a person takes bath in Yama Teerth (now Ganges at Sankata Ghat), worships Yameshwar and Yama Aditya, such devotee will never experience the tortures of Hell. (He will reach heaven after his death).

(YAMA ADITYA)

On an auspicious day when Tuesday, Bharani Nakshatra and Chaturdasi (14th day after Amavasya or Poornima) coincide, if a person performs rituals for his forefathers, he will attain all round happiness. It is believed that forefathers eagerly wait for their descendents to take bath in Yam Teerth and perform the rituals on the aforesaid day.

A person who prays to Yama Aditya and Yameshwar after taking bath in Yama Teerth will always remain happy.
