THE PURANIC FOUNDATION OF SHIVA SANCTUMS IN KASHI

KASHI KHAND • CHAPTER 25, SHLOKA 46

त्रिरात्रमपि ये काश्यां वसन्ति नियतेन्द्रिया :
तेषां पुनन्ति नियतं स्पृष्टाश्चरणरेणव: ॥

"Devotees who spend even three nights in Kashi with disciplined senses become so spiritually sanctified that merely touching the dust of their holy feet purifies other souls."

According to sacred Vedic tradition and the Kashi Khand of the Skanda Purana, Varanasi is the eternal dwelling place (Avimukta Kshetra) of Lord Shiva. When the entire cosmos dissolves during Mahapralaya, Lord Shiva holds Kashi aloft on the tip of his sacred Trishul (trident), ensuring that this sanctified zone never perishes.

The Pan-India Jyotirlinga Presence in Kashi

A foundational doctrine articulated in Chapter 25 and Chapter 99 of the Kashi Khand states that because elderly, infirm, or ascetic devotees might not have the physical or financial capacity to traverse the entire Indian subcontinent from Somnath in Gujarat to Rameshwaram in Tamil Nadu, Lord Shiva established precise counterparts of all Twelve Jyotirlingas right within the sacred boundaries of Varanasi:

- Somnath (Saurashtra): Represented at Someshwar at Man Mandir Ghat.
- Mallikarjuna (Srisailam): Represented at Tripurantakeshwar in Sigra.
- Mahakaleshwar (Ujjain): Represented at Mahakaleshwar in Daranagar.
- Omkareshwar (Narmada): Represented at Omkareshwar beyond Machhodari.
- Baidyanath / Parli (Deoghar/Maharashtra): Represented at Baijnatheshwar in Kamachha.
- Bhimashankar (Maharashtra): Represented at Bheemeshwar in the Kashi Karvat temple.
- Rameshwaram (Tamil Nadu): Represented at Ganeshwar / Rameshwar at Man Mandir Ghat.
- Nageshwar (Dwarka/Maharashtra): Represented at Nageshwar at Bhonsla Ghat.
- Kashi Vishweshwar (Varanasi): The supreme sovereign Swayambhu linga at the heart of Avimukta.
- Trimbakeshwar (Nashik): Represented at Triambakeshwar near Godowlia.
- Kedarnath (Himalayas): Represented at Kedareshwar presiding over Kedar Ghat.
- Grishneshwar (Ellora): Represented at Grishneshwar inside the Kamakhya / Tripurantakeshwar complex.

Performing darshan of these shrines in Kashi awards the exact spiritual fruit (Punya Phala) of visiting the original pan-India Jyotirlingas, while simultaneously conferring the supreme liberation (Moksha) unique to Varanasi.

Kashi Vishwanath

class="art-PostContent"> VISHWESHWAR (VISHWANATH TEMPLE) Vishweshwar Temple also known as Vishwanath Temple is one of the twelve Jyotirlingas. This temple finds mention in various religious texts like Kashi Khand, Shiv Puran etc. According to Kashi Khand, the name of this temple was Moksh Lakshmi Vilas temple which contained five mandaps of which the main mandap was Garbha Griha (Sanctum Sanctorum) where the Vishweshwar Ling was worshipped. Vishweshwar Ling is Swayambhu Ling.

Importance of offering flowers to Lord Vishwanath has been described in Kashi Khand in the following shloka.

When Lord Shiva was narrating the greatness, he was accompanied by Lord Indra on one side and seven great rishis were surrounding him. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 99, para 5)." Even today, seven poojaries (believed to be the descendents of the great seven rishis) perform a daily pooja at Vishwanatha Temple at around 7-7.30 p.m., known as Sapta Rishi Pooja/Aarti. As on date devotees can see video clippings of this Aarti at www.shrikashivishwanath.org. However, devotees who visit Kashi must make it a point to participate in this Holy ritual and it is certain that they will like the Aarti to their utmost satisfaction.

(KASHI VISHWANATH JYOTIRLING)

There are various types of Poojas and rituals prescribed in ancient texts like Kashi Khand, Padma Puran, Linga Puran etc. but considering the present environs it may not be possible for any person to follow the steps mentioned in the above texts. It is believed that taking a dip in the Holy Ganges at Manikarnika Ghat and having darshan at Vishwanath Temple will cleanse all sins of a person.

The greatness of Visweshwar (Vishwanath) has been described amply in Kashi Khand in several places in several chapters and if an attempt is made to reproduce the same here, it may consume much space. However, it is sufficient to say that Vishwanath temple is highly revered and worshipped by several devotees not only from all over India but all over the world.

Every year on the day after Deepavali Amavasya, 56 Bhog Annakoot Shringar is done at Vishwanath Temple and this attracts devotees from all over the world. It is believed that having darshan of this beholding sight will prevent shortage of food at our house.

During the past few years, the temple complex has been expanded and new Kashi Vishwanath Corridor has come up. Presently lakhs of devotees are visiting this holy temple daily.

(NEW KASHI VISHWANATH CORRIDOR)

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE

The temple is located at Ck-35/19, Chowk, Varanasi. The temple area has been widened to be known as Vishwanath Corridor and the entrance is via Gyanvapi.

Please watch our YouTube Video about Kashi Vishwanath at following Link

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nVskyJmzxGQ&t=13s

TYPES OF POOJAS

The temple is open almost 24 hours with slight gap of about 1-2 hours. The day begins with Mangla Arti at around 2.30 a.m. to 4.00 A.M. Bhog is at 11.30 to 12.30 noon. Sapta Rishi Pooja is carried out at around 7 to 7.30 p.m. daily followed by Shringar at 9.00 p.m. and Shayan pooja at 11.00 p.m. The timings may vary slightly depending on the seasons (summer/winter).

Special poojas are performed daily at various timings by Nattu Kottai Nagaratthar Chatram (of Tamil Nadu) based in Varanasi. For South Indians visiting Kashi, it is advisable to stay for at least two days in Nattu Kottai Chattram and participate in the poojas undertaken by them.

POOJARIS OF THE TEMPLE Since 1983, the management of the temple has been taken over by District Administration. The temple was in a congested premises and recently, a compound wall has been demolished to give more leg space and elbow room to the devotees. The details of the temple and various poojas being performed are also available in the temple web site www.shrikashivishwanath.org.

class="art-PostContent"> MRITYUNJAYESHWAR (MRITYUNJAY MAHADEV) Lord Shiva was describing the various sacred Teerths (Ponds), Koops (Wells) and places of worship in Kashi. Lord Shiva described such places with pleasure (Kashi Khand, Chapter 97).

In the vicinity of Kaleshwar is the Mrityunjayeshwar. This Ling is capable of keeping untimely death away from devotees. In the vicinity of the Ling is Kalodak Koop (Well). The water from the well is capable of curing all diseases.

Mrityunjayeshwar is also referred to as Apa Mrityu Hareshwar in Kashi Khand (the Lord who wards off untimely death).

LOCATION OF MRITYUNJAYESHWAR

Mrityunjayeshwar is located at K-52/39, Vriddha Kal, Mrityunjay Mahadev Temple. People can approach this temple by rickshaw through Bisheshwarganj/GPO.

Local devotees call this temple as Mrityunjay Mahadev and the deity is quite famous by that name.

LOCATION OF MRITYUNJAY MAHADEV TEMPLE AS PER GOOGLE MAPS IS GIVEN BELOW

TYPES OF POOJA

The temple is open from 04.00 a.m. to 12.00 midnight. The doors of the sanctum sanctorum may remain closed at certain times on account of Shringar (Decoration) etc. There are three aarties at 05.30 a.m. in the morning, 6.30 p.m. and in the night.

As the name implies, Mrityu is death, Jay is victory. Therefore, the combination may be taken as victory over death.

People who are afflicted with fatal planetary combinations in their horoscope, indicating untimely death, perform Maha Mrityunjay Jap at this place and many devotees have succeeded in their endeavours.

class="art-PostContent"> OMKARESHWAR According to Kashi Khand, Chapter 73, Goddess Parvati wanted to know about Omkareshwar Ling and Lord Shiva narrated as under :

Once Lord Brahma underwent severe penance for several long years and a mighty or very strong force erupted from beneath, piercing the ground, radiating divine light all over. This assumed the form of a divine Ling and Lord Brahma beheld a divine energy which was representative of all the Vedas (Rig, Yajur and Sam Veda), the energy which represented Akaar, Ukaar and Makaar. Lord Brahma saw in that divine light, the energy of OM which governs the entire universe.

Lord Brahma visualized a creature with four horns, seven hands, two heads. The Lord also saw a divine energy encompassing all the Vedas, Puranas, five Brahms (Akaar, Ukaar, Makaar, Naad and Bindu). Lord Brahma was so enchanted with the Panchakshara Ling (Panch+Akshar means five letters mentioned within the coasts above) that he started singing praises of Lord Shiva whom he could visualize in person, standing in front.

Kashi Khand has described in detail the praises and eulogy which were expressed by Lord Brahma in veneration of Lord Shiva. Very pleased with the prayers of Lord Brahma, Lord Shiva granted a divine boon to the former. Lord Brahma desired that Lord Shiva should always be present in the Shiv Ling which had appeared as a Divine energy and the name of the Ling should be Omkareshwar. Lord Shiva granted accordingly and stated that the Shiv Ling was to be called Shiva Panchayatan, symbolic of Akaar, Ukaar, Makaar, Naad and Bindu.

(OMKARESHWAR)

A devotee who takes a holy dip in Matsyodari Teerth and worships Omkareshwar will not have the fear of rebirth. A person who worships Omkareshwar will derive the benefits accruing out of performing Ashwa Medha Yagna. According to Kashi Khand, worshipping Omkareshwar is equivalent to reciting one lakh Rudra Japam and is also equivalent to worshipping all the Shiv Lings in the world. Relevant shlokas from Kashi Khand are given below.

लिङ्गजातानी सर्वाणि दृष्टानि स्युर्न संशय:

Worshipping Omkareshwar will give punya of worshipping all groups of Shiv Lings in the world.

A person who is a devotee of Omkareshwar will attain Mukti even if he dies at any place other than Kashi. Lord Shiva told Lord Brahma that with the radiating energy of Omkareshwar, Lord Brahma will be successful in his job of creating human beings. After granting all the boons to Lord Brahma, Lord Shiva disappeared inside the Ling.

Earlier there were five Shiv Lings representing Shiva Panchayatan viz. Akaareshwar, Omkareshwar, Makaareshwar, Naadeshwar and Bindu Ling. Now there are only three Lings, Akaareshwar, Omkareshwar and Makaareshwar.

Omkareshwar Ling is also known as Kapileshwar and Nadeshwar. Omkareshwar ling was stated to be on the banks of Matsyodari Teerth where, during rainy season, the rising river Ganges also used to join.

According to Kashi Khand (Chapter 73), on Ashtami and Chaturdasi days, having a bath in Matsyodari Teerth and praying to Lord Omkareshwar, will cleanse the devotee of all sins. A person praying at Lord Omkareshwar temple is really lucky and will find place in heaven. His ancestors plunge into ecstasy on seeing their descendent praying at the above temple.

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE Omkareshwar temple is located at A-33/23, Pathani Tola, North of Machhodari. Matsyodari Teerth as mentioned in Kashi Khand has dried up now and the locality is known as Macchodari. The temple is approachable from a famous locality called Machhodari and if a devotee travels through the left of Machhodari, he will come across Trilochan Police Chowki after which he will take a left turn to reach Omkareshwar.

(MAKARESHWAR)

Two other temples Akaareshwar (representing Akaar) are located at A-33/47 and Makaareshwar (representing Makaar) at A-33/25 nearby.

Please watch our YouTube Video about Omkareshwar, Baijnatheshwar and Bhima Shankar at following Link https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qlng0C-dJGQ&t=17s TYPES OF POOJAS The temple is open for worship from 05.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m. and from 05.00 p.m. to 09.00 p.m. Aarties are conducted in the morning. Special importance is on Vaisakha Month which commences some time around April 20, Chaturdasi day after Amavasya (one day before Poornima). Annual Shringar is held on the above day at Omkareshwar. A person undergoing Vratham (fast) on the above day and doing pooja at Omkareshwar temple attains high level of intellect.

As the importance of Matsoydari Teerth has dwindled (due to drying up of the Teerth), people may perform the abhishek of Omkareshwar Ling with Ganges water.

Recently one Parvaty Devi idol has been installed by Shri Shivkoti Anantapuram (Andhra Pradesh) on 5.5.2010.

For doing special pooja, it is advisable to consult the Poojari before hand.

SCRIPTURAL SHLOKA • KASHI KHAND

तत्फलं लभ्यते काश्यां पूजनाक्रित्तिवासास:

class="art-PostContent"> KRITHI VASESHWAR

Lord Shiva was describing the fame of Ratneshwar to Goddess Parvaty and precisely at that time Mahishasur's son Gajasur was aggressively beating up and killing various Shiv Gans (attendants / servitors). Wherever his steps touched the ground there were earthquake like tremors. His gigantic hands uprooted all the trees and his forceful exhalation of breath caused huge tidal waves in the ocean.

Left alone, Gajasur would have created havoc in the world and Lord Shiva did not want any sort of disturbance in the Punya Kshetra : Kashi. When Gajasur approached him in a speed, Lord Shiva pierced him with his Trishul and lifted him high in the sky. Before dying Gajasur told Lord Shiva that he was extremely happy that he faced death at the hands of Lord Shiva and this was indeed a bliss in disguise for him. All living beings have to die one day or the other and he prayed that such kind of death should be a boon to all. He also wished that, after his death, his skin should adorn Lord Shiva for ever and he (Gajasur) would have the satisfaction of being in constant touch of Lord Shiva.

Lord Shiva agreed accordingly. He further stated that Gajasur had attained his death in the Avimukta Kshetra called Kashi and his body will attain the form of a huge Shiv Ling precisely at that place. This Ling will be called Kriti Vaseshwar. Krithi Vaseshwar will be a huge/enormous ling, much bigger than any of the Shiv Lings in Kashi. For the benefit of mankind, Lord Shiva stated that he and his family will always remain in Krithi Vaseshwar Ling.

(KRITHI VASESHWAR)

All sins committed in previous births and present births are washed away by performing various poojas and good/righteous actions. But a mere darshan of Krithi Vaseshwar would cleanse the devotee of all his sins. Whatever benefit is derived by reciting seven crore Rudra Jap, will be attained simply by one Rudra Jap (japam) in front of Krithi Vaseshwar. (Kashi Khand, Chapter sixty eight). Jap or Japam is repeated recitation of a mantra or shloka.

According to Brahma Vaivart Puran, Krithi Vaseshwar makes the life of Kashi Vasis (residents of Kashi who have adopted divine life) fruitful and gives Moksha to devotees who pray at this temple. According to Koormapuran, whether a devotee attains Moksha even after thousand births or not, with blessings of Krithi Vaseshwar, the devotee certainly attains moksha and is liberated.

Elsewhere in Kashi Khand, Goddess Parvaty desired to know about the Lingas which are worshipped in Kashi and which are capable of giving mukti. Lord Shiva told Goddess Parvaty that there are crores of Lingas in Kashi (Kashi Khand, Chapter 73) of which many are Swayambhu Lingas and many have been established by devotees after observing vedic rituals.

Of the above Lings, there are fourteen prominent Lingas and by merely uttering the names of such Lings, the devotee is absolved of all his sins. Fourth among such Lings is Krithi Vaseshwar Ling.

During medieval times, many Mughal rulers destroyed various temples. Of the important temples of Kashi which were destroyed three were prominent, i.e. Vishweshwar Temple, Krithi Vaseshwar Temple and Bindu Madhav Temple (Vishnu). Krithi Vaseshwar temple was situated to the north of Kal Bhairav temple and was destroyed by Aurangzeb. Near the temple was Hans Teerth. People were known to take bath in Hans (Swan) Teerth and pray at Krithi Vaseshwar temple.

After destruction of the temple, the reconstruction was undertaken by Raja Patnimal after a long gap and the present temple was constructed at a place to the South of the ancient temple and worship is being done at this newly constructed temple now.

One important point needs to be mentioned here. Original Krithi Vaseshwar was in a huge temple premises. As mentioned in the foregoing paragraphs, a mosque was constructed after destruction of the temple and there was a fountain, precisely at the place where Krithi Vaseshwar Ling existed once. For several centuries, devotees used to pray at the fountain on Shiv Ratri days, at the spot where the Ling stood once. Several years back, one huge Ling had been installed again on that spot. It is learnt that the devotees are offering regular prayers at the above spot also.

Special importance is on all Chaturdasi days after Poornima (one day before Amavasya). A person undergoing Vratham on the above day and doing pooja at Krithi Vaseshwar temple attains highest level of happiness. Kashi Khand lays special importance for pooja/archana during Magha month (Jan. 21 – Feb. 20), Chaturdasi day after Amavasya (fourteenth day) and Chaitra month (March – April) Poornima days. Performing pooja on such days will be highly beneficial for the devotees.

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE Krithi Vaseshwar temple is located at K-46/23, West of Har Tirath Pond, in Mrityunay Mahadev Road. Hans Teerth as mentioned in ancient texts is now known as Har Tirath and many buildings have now come up where once the pond existed. The temple is approachable from a famous locality called Bishweshwarganj, which is a great mandi (market place) and travelling to the temple in cycle rickshaw is convenient.

Please watch our YouTube Video about Krithi Vaseshwar at following Link

TYPES OF POOJAS

The temple is open from 04.00 a.m. to 01.30 p.m. and from 05.00 p.m. to 10.00 p.m. Mangala Aarti is at 04.00 a.m., aarties are performed at 08.00 am, 12.00 noon, 08.00 p.m. and Shayan Aarti at 10.00 p.m.

For doing special pooja, it is advisable to consult the Poojari before hand.

class="art-PostContent"> KEDARESHWAR Kedareshwar is a Shiva temple in Himalayas which is one of the twelve jyotirlingas. According to Kashi Khand, one gentleman performed the upnayanam ceremony of his son named Vashisht at Ujjain. The boy, Vashisht, was very religious and performed all poojas including Linga pooja etc. He used to visit Kedareshwar Temple in Himalayas alongwith his Guru regularly and perform pooja of Lord Kedareshwar.

Once, on the way to Kedareshwar, the Guru died unfortunately and since he had all along done only good deeds, he found a place for himself at Mount Kailas. Vashisht who was 12 at that time, got an enlightenment that those who go for having darshan of Kedareshwar are blessed with all punyas. He then went and settled down at Kashi.

But on all Chaitra Month Poornima days (March 20-April 21), Vashisht (who remained a Brahmachari) used to visit Kedareshwar Ling at Himalayas and this went on for 61 years. But due to old age, he could not move out and he started praying to Lord Shiva at Kashi. Lord Shiva blessed him with a wish and Vashisht requested that Lord Shiva should kindly appear at Kashi itself as Kedareshwar.

Lord Shiva was overwhelmed with the sincerity and devotion of Vashisht and granted accordingly. He appeared as Kedareshwar at Kashi and told Vashisht that performing pooja at Kedareshwar at Kashi will yield seven times greater punya as compared to performing pooja at Kedareshwar at Himalayas (Kashi Khand, Chapter 77).

(KEDARESHWAR)

Gauri Kund, Hans teerth and Manasarovar teerth find mention in Kashi Khand in reference to Kedareshwar but now only Gauri Kund remains. Manasarovar and Hans Teerth have dried up.

People observe vrath (fast) on Chaitra Month (March 20-April 20) Shukla Paksha Chaturdasi and break their fast on Poornima day, the next day, after performing pooja of Kedareshwar. This is as stated in Kashi Khand where Vashisht used to pray Lord Kedareshwar on Chaitra Poornima days (as mentioned in para above).

Kashi Khand, Chapter 77, Shlok 05

गृहाद्विनिर्गते पुंसि केदारमभिनिश्चितं

जन्मद्वयार्जितं पापं शरीरदापी निर्वजेत्

Accumulated sins of a devotee for two births will be certainly washed off from his body, if he proceeds from his home for worshipping Kedareshwar Ling (in Kashi).

Kashi is divided into three Khands, Omkar Khand, Vishweshwar Khand and Kedar Khand. It is believed that a person who dies in Kashi attains Mukti. Going a step further, if the person dies in the area governed by Kedar Khand, he obtains immediate mukti while in other two Khands, there are some sort of hardships to be faced.

On all India basis there are twelve Jyotirlings and there are twelve important Shiv Lings in Kashi which represent the aforesaid twelve Jyotirlings. Kedareshwar (Varanasi) is worshipped as Kedareshwar Jyotirling (Uttarakhand).

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE Kedareshwar temple is located at B-6/102, Kedar Ghat which is a famous locality. It is approachable by cycle rickshaw. Alternatively, people can travel upto a locality called Sonarpura by Car or Auto rickshaw and travel on foot. People may also travel by boat to Kedar Ghat and walk up the steps directly into the temple.

TYPES OF POOJAS

The temple is open for worship 03.00 a.m. to 11.00 p.m. Mangala Aarti is performed at 03.15 a.m., 2 nd Aarti at 10.00 a.m., 3 rd Aarti at 05.30 p.m. and Shayan Aarti at 10.30 p.m. Timings may change depending upon the season.

Important days are Ekadasi, Pradosham and Poornima days. Anna Abhishek is performed once in a year. In this ritual, the Shiv Ling is covered with cooked rice.

Taking bath in Ganges on every Monday and performing pooja/abhishek of Lord Kedareshwar is very auspicious. Much importance to attached to poojas on Mondays during Shravan month (July 23 to August 20) and most importantly on last Monday of that month. It is believed that performing Shraaddh ceremony on Amavasya which falls on Tuesday at Kedar Ghat is very auspicious.

The poojas at the temple are performed by Kumaraswamy Mutt of Tamil Nadu. For doing special pooja etc., it is advisable to consult the Poojari before hand.

POOJARIS OF THE TEMPLE For performing any pooja at the temple, devotees may contact The Agent, Kumaraswamy Mutt, Kedar Ghat, Varanasi. The telephone number of Kumaraswamy Mutt is 0542-2454064. E-mail id is agentskmutt@gmail.com.

Kumaraswamy Mutt is a well managed Trust and offers rooms of various types for stay also. Devotees wishing to stay in Varanasi may contact the Agent at the above address.

सहेतनो जातु स नारकीं व्यथां कथां तदीयां दिवि कुर्वतेऽमराः

class="art-PostContent"> DHARMESHWAR Goddess Parvaty asked Lord Shiva to describe the various important Shiv Lings in Kashi. Lord Shiva told her, once upon a time, in Anand Van (Kashi) Yam Raj installed a Ling and underwent severe penance in prayer of Lord Shiva. His prayers went on during extremely cold winters and torrid summers. The intensity of his prayers went on increasing; he stood on one leg and prayed for several years and finally stood on one toe for several days during his penance. At last Lord Shiva appeared before him and conferred the title of Dharma Raja on Yam Raj. (In some mantras like Sandhya Vandana, the mantra reads as Yamaya Dharma Rajaya etc. etc.) The Ling installed by Yam Raj was named by Lord Shiva as Dharmeshwar Ling. On seeing Lord Shiva in person, Yam Raj was dumb struck and could not ask what he wanted. He was overwhelmed with joy.

(DHARMESHWAR)

Lord Shiva took the initiative and told Yam Raj that the latter should do proper justice to people who die, those committing sins should face punishment and those performing punya Karma (virtuous deeds) should go to heaven. The judgement should be fair. Those who live in Kashi and engage in pooja etc. should be free from all sins committed in any generation. Yam Raj as such is for evil persons/sinners and he is Dharma Raj for good people.

Those persons who take bath in Dharma Koop and perform pooja of Dharmeshwar are cleansed of all sins. Yam Raj agreed to do as he was directed by Lord Shiva. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 78).

कृत्याऽप्यघानामिह यः सहस्रं धर्मेश्वरं पश्यति दैवयोगात्

सहेतनो जातु स नारकीं व्यथां कथां तदीयां दिवि कुर्वतेऽमराः

Even after committing thousands of sins, if a devotee – by God's Grace – worships Dharmeshwar, he will not have to face the hardships of hell, on the contrary devtaas in heaven will keep discussing about him.

To this day, it is believed that those who live in Kashi, performing regular poojas etc. are cleansed of all sins.

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE Dharmeshwar Temple is located at D-2/21, Mir Ghat. The temple is approachable from a famous locality called Dashashwamedh. People can travel upto Dashashwamedh Vishwanath Gulli by Rickshaw and then to the temple via famous Vishalakshi Gauri temple by foot. A devotee who has finished darshan of Visweshwar Temple, can proceed towards the Saraswati Phatak gate and walk towards Vishalakshi Gauri temple, to reach Dharmeshwar. Alternatively, they can travel to Mirghat by boat and climb the steps.

The entire area covering Dharmeshwar, Dharma Koop, Vishalakshi Devi etc. is a powerful Shakti Peeth (seat of vital energy) and any prayer offered at this place begets maximum benefits to the devotees.

TYPES OF POOJAS

The temple is open for worship from 05.00 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. and from 05.00 p.m. to 07.30 p.m. Aarties are performed at 05.00 a.m. and 07.00 p.m.

Performing pooja in Dharmeshwar temple in the month of Kartik (October 20-November-20), Shukla Paksha Ashtami, 8 th day after Amavasya, is considered very auspicious.

There is a well nearby known as Dharma Koop. Shraaddh Karma performed here after taking bath in Dharma Koop is equivalent to performing Shraaddh in Gaya.

For doing special pooja etc., it is advisable to consult the Poojari before hand.

In his earlier birth, he was residing in Holy city of Madurai and was known as Siva Sharma. He died in Haridwar and reached Vaikunth. Due to his punya karma, he took rebirth and reached Kashi. He was worshipping one Ling and in due course the Ling was known as Vridha Kaleshwar.

It was believed that Vridha Kal built the temple with the Ling inside but claimed that Lord Mahadev had himself built the temple. Accordingly, even now it is said that whenever we do some good deed, we should not go on bragging about it. The good deed will be recognized in due course by the appropriate authority and due rewards will ensue.

class="art-PostContent"> ATMA VEERESHWAR According to Kashi Khand, Chapater 82, Lord Shiva described the power of Veereshwar Ling as under :

Once a kingdom was ruled by a very religious minded ruler named Amitrajit. He was a staunch devotee of Lord Vishnu and he made it a rule that all the citizens of his kingdom also became devotees of Lord Vishnu. One day Narad Rishi visited his palace and was welcomed with due respect by the King.

(ATMA VEERESHWAR)

As per the direction of Narad Rishi, King Amitrajit saved one beautiful girl called Malayagandini from the clutches of one evil person. The King subsequently married her and they came to Kashi and were immediately happy with the beautiful surroundings. In due course, Malayagandini was blessed with a handsome male child, who was destined to become 16 years old, immediately after birth. However, since he was born in an inauspicious planetary combination, the Ministers of the King told the Queen that she would have to sacrifice the child, otherwise the King would die.

In order to save the King, she sent the child to Vikata Devi. But no one was inclined to slay the handsome boy who had been 16 years of age by then. The boy undertook severe penance of Lord Shiva, whereupon Lord Shiva appeared before him in form of a Ling. This Ling was named by Lord Shiva as Veereshwar Ling.

According to Lord Shiva, a person who performs Pooja, Abhishek and archana of Veereshwar Ling attains all sort of happiness, prosperity and success.

Kashi Khand, Chapter 83, states that a person who performs pooja of Veereshwar gets the benefit of doing pooja of three crore Lingas. (The time after twilight – sandhya kaal, is considered night time).

A devotee who performs pooja of (Atma) Veereshwar Ling (in Kashi), at night, will get the punya benefit of performing pooja of three crore lings, here itself.

————————————————————————

It is considered auspicious to worship this Ling during Chaturdasi nights without going to sleep or bed. It is also considered auspicious to perform abhishek of this Ling with Panch Amritam (five ingredients namely milk, curd, honey, sugar and clarified butter) (Kashi Khand ibid).

Kashi Khand, Chapter 83, Shlok 117

यदन्यत्र फलं लिङ्गे कोटिपुष्पप्रदानतः

तदेकेनैव पुष्पेण वीरेशे नाऽत्र संशयः

Whatever punya is derived by offering one crore flowers to other lings, the same punya is derived by offering just one flower to (Atma) Veereshwar in Kashi. There is no doubt about that.

Kashi Khand, Chapter 11, mentions the importance of pooja/archana of Atma Veereshwar for being blessed with a child. One Sage Vishwanar and his pious wife prayed at various places in Kashi and finally arrived at the Siddha Peeth of Atma Veereshwar. He performed all rituals and rites at this temple for many months, reciting a prayer called Abhilasha Ashtakam and one day he saw a boy aged eight years standing near the Ling. The sage started worshipping the boy with the same fervour as one would worship Lord Shiva with.

The boy was none other than Lord Shiva himself who directed his devotees to recite Abhilasha Ashtakam for one year, as was done by Sage Vishwanar, which will certainly result in progeny for childless couples. Subsequently, the boy disappeared into the Atma Veereshwar Ling.

Though this Ling is mentioned as Veereshwar in Kashi Khand, presently, this ling is called as Atma Veereshwar or the soul of Veereshwar.

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE

Atma Veereshwar temple is located at Ck-7/158, Scindia Ghat which is a famous locality in Varanasi. This place can be reached by boat through Scindia Ghat. Alternatively one can travel in cycle rickshaw upto Chowk and walk down the gullies to reach the temple. Reciting Rudra Japa at Atma Veereshwar temple is very fruitful.

The intensity of Lord Surya's prayers started reflecting in the extreme heat generated thereby. Sunrays started getting warmer and warmer. Finally it became extremely unbearable for all living beings and all physical activities practically came to a standstill.

Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvaty came to know about this and they appeared in person in front of Lord Surya. Lord Surya opened his eyes and started singing praises of Goddess Parvaty and Lord Shiva whereupon both of them became extremely happy. They granted several divine wishes to Lord Surya.

Lord Shiva told Lord Surya that the Shiv Ling installed by Lord Surya will be known as Gabhasteeshwar. A person who takes bath at Pancha Nada Teerth (Panchganga) and worships Gabhastheeswar will be free from all sins and will certainly attain Moksha. (Kashi Khand, Chapter 49) class="art-PostContent"> SOMESHWAR Kashi Khand, Chapter 100 states that devotees should undertake religious tour (Yatra) of several deities situated within the main area of Kashi. This Yatra is known as Antargrihi Yatra and should be undertaken daily.

One such deity among the deities to be worshipped is Someshwar. It is worth mentioning that Someshwar is symbolic of Somnath Jyotir Ling.

(SOMESHWAR)

People who worship this deity will always be blessed with happiness and prosperity.

Many people undertake Dwadasa Jyotirlinga Yatra in Kashi (Dwadasa means twelve). Someshwar represents Somnath of Saurashtra which is the first among the twelve jyotirlings. Even otherwise, old timers say that devotees in Kashi, who cannot travel upto Somnath in Gujarat, can worship this Shiv Ling, Someshwar, in Kashi and they will derive the same amount of blessings.

LOCATION OF SOMESHWAR

Someshwar is locted at D.16/34, Manmandir Ghat. Devotees can travel upto Dasaswamedh Vishwanath Gully by rickshaw, enter the gulli and immediately take a right turn and proceed further for about 150 yards. They may seek guidance from the locals at that place to reach the Varahi temple and proceed further. Someshwar is located in the vicinity of Varahi temple.

class="art-PostContent"> BHEEMESHWAR According to Kashi Khand, Chapter 69, the place where Lord Shiva wore the skin of Gajasur after slaying the latter, was called Rudra Vasam. (Kindly refer to Krithi Vaseshwar).

Once the Lord, in his form as Krithi Vaseshwar, was sitting alongwith Goddess Uma Devi when Nandi offered his prayers and stated that there are 68 places of worship dedicated to Lord Shiva in this holy place. Various idols/Shiv Lings have been brought from several other places and installed in Kashi.

From Sapt Godavari Teerth the Lord has appeared in Kashi by name of Bheemeshwar for bestowing happiness and granting Moksha to devotees. All those devotees who worship Bheemeshwar which is to the east of Nakuleshwar, will be freed from even the most heinous sins committed by them.

(BHEEMESHWAR)

On all India basis there are twelve Jyotirlings and there are twelve important Shiv Lings in Kashi which represent the aforesaid twelve Jyotirlings. The above deity is worshipped as Bheema Shankar(Nashik-Pune Road, Maharashtra).

LOCATION OF BHEEMESHWAR

Bheemeshwar is located at Ck.31/12, Kashi Karvat temple. Devotees can proceed northwards from Visweshwar temple towards Saraswati Phatak and ask for Kashi Karvat temple, which is quite famous.

TYPES OF POOJA

The place of worship is open practically throughout the day. The ling can be viewed from the top as it is located below the ground level.

Among the deities to be worshipped is Nageshwar which is considered to be an important Shiv Ling.

(NAGESHWAR)

Nageshwar is one of the twelve Jyotirlings. On all India basis, there are two temples which are worshipped as Nageshwar Jyotirling. One is in Maharashtra and the other one is near Dwarka.

Nageshwar temple in Varanasi is worshipped as one of the Jyotirlings. It is believed that doing pooja and archana of Nageshwar Ling at Kashi is as beneficial as doing a similar pooja at the above two temples. This will cleanse the devotee of all the sins committed knowingly or unknowingly.

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE The temple is located at House No. Ck.1/21, Patani Tola, Bhosala Ghat, Varanasi. One can travel upto Chowk by Cycle Rickshaw and walk to this place via Sankata Devi Temple (famous landmark). Alternatively, devotees can approach the place by boat upto Bhosala Ghat and climb up the steps. There is another Shiv Ling named Nageshwar in the premises of Mrityunjay Temple and devotees worship this Ling also with all divinity.

class="art-PostContent"> KARKOTAK NAGESHWAR Kashi Khand Chapter 66 describes various Teerths (Sacred Ponds) and Shiv Lings around Jyeshteshwar Ling. Towards the east of Gandarveshwar is Karkotak Nag and Karkotak Vapi (Well), popularly known as Nag Kuan.

A person who bathes in Karkotak Well and worships Karkotak Nageshwar need not have fear of death due to any kind of poison. No venom will be able to find way inside his body.

It is worth mentioning here that Karkotak Nageshwar Ling is submerged in the water of Karkotak Well. When the water level recedes or the water is removed for cleaning purposes, the Ling becomes visible.

(KARKOTAK NAGESHWAR LING BELOW THE WELL WATER. THIS LING IS VISIBLE ONLY ON NAG PANCHAMI DAY WHEN THE WELL WATER IS DRAINED OUT)

However, as long as the Ling remains submerged in the water, the water in the well attains divinity and people pray this well with all divinity.

However, at the main entrance just before going to the Nag Kuan, there is a temple, where one Shiv Ling has been installed which is worshipped as Nageshwar.

(KARKOTAK NAGESHWAR ABOVE THE WELL)

LOCATION OF KARKOTAK NAGESHWAR

Karkotak Nageshwar is located at J-26/206, Nag Kuan. The place is located at Jaitpura. Devotees can travel upto Jaitpura Police station and enquire about Nag Kuan which is a famous place. There is another Karkoteshwar Ling just above the water level in the Nag Kuan with an image of serpent etched nearby. This Ling is also worshipped by devotees.

TYPES OF POOJA

The place of worship is open from 05.30 a.m. to 12.00 Noon and from 04.00 p.m. to 09.00 p.m. Aarties are performed in the morning and evening.

There is heavy rush in this temple on Nag Panchmi day which falls in the month of Shravan. Till some time back, serpents used to come to this place, but according to locals, due to increase in population, serpents are not visible nowadays.

According to the Poojari, special poojas are performed in this temple for overcoming the ill effects of Kaal Sarp Dosh.

class="art-PostContent"> TRILOCHANESHWAR Trilochan Ling finds mention in Kashi Khand as Trivishtabh Ling. In the south of Trilochan, three holy rivers Yamuna, Saraswati and Narmada joined together once. It is believed that these three rivers themselves performed abhishek of Trilochan Ling (Kashi Khand, Chapter 75).

While Omkareshwar Ling attained prime importance among all Lings in Kashi, the importance of darshan of Trilochan Ling is given more prominence. Trilochan is a Swayambhu Ling and it is stated in Kashi Khand that the Ling came to the earth from seven Patal Lokas, piercing each and every layer.

Let alone having darshan, even uttering the word of Trilochan by mouth will cleanse the devotee of his sins. A person knowingly or unknowingly committing sins in any place, finds mukti in Kashi and a person committing a similar sin in Kashi finds mukti by eulogizing (praising) Trilochan Ling. (Kashi Khand, ibid).

(TRILOCHANESHWAR)

The three rivers mentioned above join together in a Teerth called Pilpila Teerth. It is believed that taking a bath in Pilpila Teerth and having darshan of Trilochan is considered very auspicious.

Those devotees who take bath in Pilpila Tirtha and worship Trilochaneshwar will never be breastfed by their mother. (Meaning, they will have no rebirth – they will attain salvation.) (Akshay Triteeya day is considered very holy for this purpose and many devotees undertake this ritual).

Performing pooja/archana of Trilochan on all Ashtami and Chaturdashi days are auspicious. In Vaishaka Month (April 20-May 20) Shukla Paksha Tritheeya (third day after Amavasya), also known as Akshay Tritheeya is a very very auspicious day and people who observe vrath (fast) on that day and perform Shraadh Karma (rituals towards their forefathers) attain high level of enlightenment and obtain blessings of their ancestors and Gods.

If all the Shiv Lings in the world are visualised as a human being (personified), Trilochan Ling is the Eye of the Personified structure. Local pundits believe that Trilochan Ling is the third eye of Vishweshwar Ling.

In Kashi Khand, besides Pilpila Teerth, there is mention of Padodak Koop (well). This Koop is still existing in the temple premises. Pilpila Teerth is existing in the form of Pilpila Koop very near to Trilochan temple. While the Padodak well has been kept covered, there is a pump attached to the well, with the help of which water is drawn.

LOCATION OF THE TEMPLE Trilochaneshwar Temple is located at A-2/80, Trilochan Ghat. The temple is approachable from Birla Hospital after Machhodari upto which place, devotees can travel by Auto or Cycle Rickshaw. Alternatively, they can have a boat ride upto Trilochan Ghat and climb the steps. This temple also houses Varanasi Devi which finds mention in Kashi Khand, Chapter 33.

TYPES OF POOJAS

The temple is open for worship 05.30 a.m. to 12.00 noon and 05.00 p.m. to 11 p.m. Mangala Aarti is performed at 05.30 a.m. and Shayan Aarti at 11.00 p.m.

Taking bath in Padodak Koop on Akshay Tritheeya day and performing pooja of Trilochan is very auspicious and there is heavy rush on the above day even now.

Jal Shringar is done on Akshay Tritheeya Day in the evening which is very well worshipped by devotees.

For doing special pooja etc., it is advisable to consult the Poojari before hand.

The temple also houses a Shiv Ling known as Saraswateeshwar, which finds mention in Kashi Khand.

In Satya Yug, in response to devout prayers by Devas and Rishis, one Ling emerged from the Bhoomi and manifested itself. This came to be called Mahadev Ling. This Ling gets the credit of making Kashi a Mukti Kshetra (region free from bondage). A person who peforms pooja and archana with sincere devotion at this temple will reach Shiva's abode after death, even if he happens to die in any place other than Kashi.

(AADI MAHADEV)

A devotee who sincerely prays to Lord Mahadev in Kashi, gets the punya equivalent to praying all Lings available in the entire world. A person who performs pooja at least once at Mahadev temple, will find a place in Lord Shiva's abode after death (Kashi Khand, ibid).

Special importance is attached to the offering of Yagyopaveeth (Sacred Thread) at Mahadev temple on Chaturdasi Day after Amavasya during Shravan Month (July-August) (Kashi Khand, ibid).

class="art-PostContent"> RATNESHWAR Lord Shiva and his consort Goddess Parvaty were happily ensconsed in the Holy City of Kashi, blessing all their devotees. Goddess Parvaty's father was Giri Raj Himavan. (Giri means Mountain, Raj means King and Himavan is Himalaya Mountains).

Once Giri Raj's wife (Goddess Parvaty's mother) told Giri Raj that a long time has passed but there had been no news about the welfare of their daughter Parvaty. Giri Raj also felt the separation from his daughter unbearable. He felt as if he was sitting on burning fire. He decided to visit Kashi to see his daughter.

As is customary, whenever a father visits his daughter in her husband's house, the father generally carries with him lots of gifts. Accordingly Giri Raj carried with him abundant dresses and Ratnas (precious stones). Kashi Khand states the quantity of precious stones as 8000 Grams of Pearls, 1000 Grams diamonds, and similar or larger quantity of other stones like corals, emarald, sapphire etc.

He reached Kashi and was astounded to see the beauty of the city. He naturally felt his daughter must be quite happy staying here and he was pleased with his fortune. Giri Raj asked a devotee in Kashi the directions to reach his daughter Uma's house. The devotee praised Goddess and stated that a person who devoutly prays Uma even by uttering these words through his mouth is blessed by Lord Visweshwar.

The devotee further stated that Lord Visweshwar and Goddess Uma (Parvaty) are staying in a very huge Palace befitting the status of an emperor and that the palace has been constructed under the supervision of celestial architect Viswakarma. The devotee went on describing the beauty of the palace where the pillars have been beautified with various kinds of precious stones with beautiful paintings on the wall etc. On hearing the description of the palace, Giri Raj was astounded. The devotee also told Giri Raj that Lord Visweshwara was freely distributing his wealth to the needy persons.

When Giri Raj heard about the greatness of Lord Visweshwara, his generosity and the attractive beauty of his palace, he (Giri Raj) felt ashamed and thought that the huge quantities of Ratnas (precious stones) brought by him as gift for his daughter were no match for what was possessed by Lord Visweshar. By the time it was evening.

Before sun rise the next day, he took bath in Panch Nada Teerth (present Panchganga Ghat), worshipped Kaal Bhairav and after leaving all the precious stones nearby, left for his abode. The Ratnas which he had left as a heap, grouped together and took form of a Ling.

(RATNESHWAR)

Soon thereafter, Lord Visweshwar and Goddess Parvaty visited the place where the Ling had formed itself. Lord Visweshwar knew by his divine vision as to what had happened. He praised Giri Raj for his greatness and stated that the Ling thus formed out of Ratnas will be called Ratneshwar.

According to Kashi Khand, Chapter 67, a person who worships Ratneshwar Ling will be blessed with all prosperity and wealth. The benefits accruing by reciting one crore Rudra Jap will be attained by performing pooja (prayers) of Ratneshwar.

LOCATION OF RATNESHWAR

Ratneshwar is located at K-53/40, on the road leading to Vridhha Kaleshwar/Mrityunjeshwar. People can travel upto this place by rickshaw and the nearest landmark is Bisheshwarganj/GPO.

SECTION V: PRACTICAL KASHI SHIVA PILGRIMAGE CIRCUITS

Optimized 1-Day and 2-Day Field Darshan Routing for Pilgrims Visiting Varanasi

1. The 1-Day Avimukta Jyotirlinga & Main Shiva Circuit

This circuit allows a pilgrim to worship the supreme sovereign Lingas of Kashi in geographic sequence, minimizing backtracking through the narrow alleys (galis) of the old city:

Time	Sanctum	Locality / Ghat	Pilgrimage Action / Significance
05:30 AM	Kashi Vishweshwar (Vishwanath)	Vishwanath Gali / Corridor	Early Mangala Aarti & Sparsh Darshan of the supreme Swayambhu Jyotirlinga.
07:30 AM	Someshwar & Ganeshwar (Rameshwar)	Man Mandir Ghat	Twin Jyotirlinga darshan at the riverfront; holy dip in the Ganges.
09:00 AM	Kedareshwar Mahadev	Kedar Ghat	Lord of Kedar Khanda & Kedarnath counterpart; sacred bathing at Kedar Ghat.
11:00 AM	Triambakeshwar & Tripurantakeshwar	Godowlia / Sigra	Trimbakeshwar and Mallikarjun / Grishneshwar / Baijnatheshwar counterparts.
04:00 PM	Dharmeshwar & Vriddha Kaleshwar	Mirzapur Ghat / Daranagar	Sanctum installed by Yama Dharmaraja and conquest of death/aging.
05:30 PM	Maha Mrityunjay Mahadev	Daranagar / Vriddha Kaleshwar	Darshan of the death-conquering Mahadev and drinking sacred Amrit Kupa water.
07:00 PM	Omkareshwar & Krithivaseshwar	Machhodari / Chitra Ghanta	Evening Sandhya Aarti at the primordial Pranava Linga and Gajasura-slayer shrine.

2. Essential Field Darshan Guidelines

- Dress Code: Traditional Indian attire (Dhoti/Kurta for men, Saree/Salwar for women) is strictly required for Garbha Griha entry and Sparsh Darshan at Kashi Vishwanath.
- Offerings: Fresh holy Ganga Jal, Bel Patra (bilva leaves), Dhatura flowers, Chandan (sandalwood paste), and Bhasma (sacred ash) are traditional for Shiva abhishekam.
- Electronic Devices: Mobile phones, cameras, and leather items are strictly prohibited inside the inner security zone of the Kashi Vishwanath corridor; deposit them in official locker facilities before entering.
- Water Quality: The sacred well water at Mrityunjay Mahadev (Amrit Kupa) is believed to possess medicinal and divine curative properties; pilgrims typically take a few drops as charanamrit.
